Juneteenth is a 157 year old holiday celebrating the emancipation of African-Americans from slavery in the US. It is celebrated on June 19 (the name is a combination of the words "June" and "nineteenth"). On that date in 1865, Major General Gordon Granger of the Union Army landed in Galveston, Texas and informed slaves that the Civil War had ended and slavery had been abolished.

Sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Student Affairs and the Office of Equity, Inclusion, and Compliance.
